1. Have you ever served on a local governmental commission, board, or council? If so, did you deal with any land regulations and please explain experience.

2. What are the top three planning issues you believe might be coming before the Commission in the next four years?

3. Do you have any conflicts or potential conflicts that would make you ineligible to vote on any items? How often do you think these conflicts might arise.

4. What unique skills would you bring as a Commissioner and how would you maintain an open and unbiased public forum?

5. What do you believe the role of the Planning Commission is and how this advisory body relates to the role of the City Council and staff?
