NOTICE - PLEASE READ: Chico Municipal Code Sections 10.30.010 through 10.30.190 provide in part that preferential parking permit areas may be established for the purpose of limiting vehicle parking within such areas. No vehicles, other than emergency vehicles, vehicles providing service to the area, vehicles displaying a license plate or placard issued by California Department of Motor Vehicles to denote use by a disabled person, and vehicles which are registered to or under the control of and exclusively used by, persons residing or employed within the designated area, may stop, stand or park on any street within this area during the hours of 8 AM to 8 PM, Sunday through Saturday. By completing and signing this application form you will be certifying that the vehicle upon which your parking permit will be affixed meets the necessary requirements for use of the permit. Note: Your Preferential Parking Permit is only valid for the specific preferential parking area in which you reside and is not valid in any other preferential parking area.
