TYPE OF INCIDENT: 664 / 187 PC – attempted homicide

LOCATION OF INCIDENT: Motel 6 - 665 Manzanita Court, Chico.

DATE/TIME OCCURRED: 11-07-15 / 0120 hours

INCIDENT CASE NUMBER: 15-7734

SUSPECTS: unknown

NARRATIVE:

While in town for business, the victim and his co-worker rented a room at the Motel 6. During the early morning hours they left the door to their room ajar while they talked inside. Shortly before 0120 hours, four unknown suspects entered their room and brandished firearms. One suspect fired his weapon. The bullet struck the victim on his head. Fortunately, the bullet glanced off the victim's skull, and did not cause serious injury. The suspects fled the scene before officers arrived. Officers contacted several people in the area, but were unable to locate the suspects.

At the scene, officers contacted the occupants of the neighboring motel rooms and confirmed that no one else was injured. The victim was transported to an area hospital where he was treated and released.

Witnesses described the suspects as two Hispanic male adults, and two females. All four suspects were estimated to be between 20 and 30 years of age. The suspects were believed to have fled the scene in an unknown vehicle.

Anyone with information related to this incident is asked to contact the Chico Police Department.
