Original release:

On 1/31/2017, at approximately 2205 hours, the Chico Police Department received a report of a missing juvenile. Officers learned a 12 year old female, Kimberly Marks ran away from home earlier in the night, and failed to return home. When family members went to look for Kimberly they located her backpack and bicycle at Hooker Oak Park with her nowhere around. Kimberly has a history of running away from home, and she was reported as a missing juvenile on 1/11/2017. At that time, the Chico Police Department conducted a missing person's investigation. Kimberly later returned home the following morning. With tonight's incident a search was conducted for Marks which included her normal routes home and searches of local parks and schools. Kimberly was last seen wearing a blue jacket and pants. Anyone with information regarding Marks' whereabouts is encouraged to contact the Chico Police Department at 530-897-4900. Attached is a picture of Marks.
