PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: 04-29-2019

Burglary Suspect Apprehended

On 04-29-19 at approximately 0655 hours, CPD officers were dispatched to a residential burglary that had just occurred in the 500 block of E. 3rd Street. The victim had exited the shower in his residence and discovered an unknown male subject in his living room. At the time, the subject was attempting to unplug and remove several electronic devices from the victim's living room. The victim confronted the subject and was able to retrieve his property prior to the subject leaving the residence on foot.

CPD officers responded and conducted an area check for the subject. A subject matching the description provided by the victim was located near the intersection of Vallombrosa and Mangrove Avenues. The subject, later identified as John Hopkins, 52 years old, was positively identified by the victim. Hopkins was placed under arrest for burglary and transported to the Butte County Jail.
