Hit and Run Traffic Collision

Chico, CA –

On 6/15/2019, CPD Dispatch received multiple 911 calls about a hit and run traffic collision in the area of 4th Street and Broadway. It was later determined the suspect vehicle traveled the wrong direction on 4th Street and collided with four parked vehicles prior to fleeing the scene. Multiple R/P's indicated the suspect vehicle was last seen traveling southbound on Park Avenue. Chico Police Officers canvased the area and located a vehicle matching the description of the suspect vehicle in the area of W. 20th Street and Rhodes Terrace. The vehicle had sustained front end damage consistent with being involved in a collision. After Officers completed their investigation, the suspect, identified as Dennis Dever, was arrested for suspicion of driving under the influence, hit and run traffic collision, providing a false name to a peace officer, violation of probation, and driving on a suspended driver license.
