Commercial Burglary Arrest

Chico, CA –

During the late evening hours of Thursday, October 17th, 2019 City patrol officers responded to the report of a burglary alarm at Rite Aid.

An alarm company contacted 911 to report the crime in progress. The prompt notification and Officer's quick response played a pivotal role in capturing the suspect.

The first arriving officer observed a female subject, later identified as 28-year-old Jennifer Kachur, inside the business who quickly disappeared from view.

After summoning additional resources, to include Chico Police K9 Pax, a search of the business was initiated. Kachur complied with verbal commands and exited the business. Kachur was taken into custody without incident. Evidence located at scene suggests Kachur was in the process of stealing merchandise from the business when apprehended. Kachur was transported to the Butte County Jail.
