PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: 10-24-19

Neighborhood Prowler Arrested

On 10-24-19 at approximately 1230 hours, a neighbor in the 1800 block of Arcadian Ave. called CPD to report a subject possibly stealing a bike from a fenced back yard. The neighbor observed the unknown subject jump over the fence and go into the backyard. The subject was then seen with a bicycle leaving the area on foot. The neighbor was able to provide a direction of travel and description to CPD dispatchers. CPD officers arrived in the area and contacted a subject matching the description near the intersection of W.10th Ave. and Magnolia Ave. The subject was identified as Dustin Fletcher, age 36, of Chico.

The original reporting party was able to positively identify Fletcher as the subject who had jumped over the fence into the neighbor's yard. Fletcher did not have permission to be in the yard and was unknown to the resident. Fletcher was also in possession of the resident's property at the time he was contacted by CPD. Fletcher was placed under arrest for Prowling and Petty Theft. The victim's property was returned to them. Fletcher was ultimately transported to the BC Jail.
