PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: 4-22-19

Chico, CA –

On 4-22-19 at approximately 0110, Officers from the Chico Police Department were dispatched to the 100 Block of W 11th St regarding a domestic dispute involving a firearm. Upon arrival, Officers contacted the victim and determined that a domestic dispute had occurred inside the residence, and during the dispute, the victim had fired one round from a semi-automatic pistol in the direction of the suspect. The bullet did not strike the suspect, but rather the wall behind him. Immediately after the round was fired, the suspect fled the residence and left in his Ford pick-up.

A BOLO was issued for the truck and shortly after, a Deputy from the Butte County Sheriff's Department spotted the truck in the area of Park Ave @ Meyers St. The truck was stopped and the driver, 73-year-old Walter Lane, was arrested for domestic battery with injury. Lane was later transported to the Butte County Jail.
