For Member of the City Council

Lisa Duarte

Age: 53

Occupation: Veterinary Hospital Coordinator

My family has lived in Chico for generations and I am proud to be raising my daughter in this City. I am a hard worker from the middle class and have become a leader in my company.

It is time for a change in Chico's government. The City Council has cut our town's budget so severely that services vital to our community have been thrown aside. The current majority on the Council claims that it is being fiscally responsible, but our infrastructure has gone unattended, drunk driving is as common as it's ever been, and the underserved homeless population is as large as it was in 2014. I am a responsible woman that appreciates the thriftiness of private industry, but the government is not a business. The City of Chico is going to have to spend money to make money. I hope to bring this commonsense perspective to City Hall starting next year.
