For the last few years, the citizens of Chico have watched our beloved city get worse in many visible and measurable ways. Caring and compassion have been mistaken for free needle giveaways and the trashing of our parks. While citizens watched crime get progressively worse, the council remained absent from the conversation. Instead they argued and served their own egos and special interests; forgetting their job is to make Chico a better place to live.

We must do better.

I've lived in District 5 for fifteen years and I am a long-time resident of Chico. Having served on the council before, I know we can maintain fiscal health and make public safety a priority. We've done it before with the right leadership and we can again. Homeless and transient issues can be handled in an intelligent, responsible and compassionate manner. We can improve our failing streets and infrastructure. As a father of two and a graduate of Chico State myself, I understand we must make our bike trails, parks and routes to campus and schools safer for all our students.

We can do all this by restoring calm and experienced leadership to Chico.

Join us! Vote for Andrew Coolidge for Chico City Council!
