D. Review Responsibilities

1. Who takes responsibility for design review or Certificates of Appropriateness?

- All projects subject to design review go the commission.

Certified Local Government Program -- 2018-2019 Annual Report

(Reporting period is from October 1, 2018 through September 30, 2019)

Some projects are reviewed at the staff level without commission review. What is the threshold between staff-only review and full-commission review? Staff determines if a project is exempt from the Certificate of Appropriateness process and is considered "minor" under Chico Municipal Code section 19.18.030. In all cases where a project is judged to require a Certificate of Appropriateness, it is forwarded to the Architectural Review and Historic Preservation Board.

2. California Environmental Quality Act

- What is the role of the staff and commission in providing input to CEQA documents prepared for or by the local government? As the Lead Agency, City staff prepares or oversees preparation of all CEQA documents. The City's Boards and Commissions can amend the CEQA findings at hearings if they desire.

What is the role of the staff and commission in reviewing CEQA documents for projects that are proposed within the jurisdiction of the local government? Boards and Commissions review all CEQA documents. On EIRs, staff reviews the document after it is completed by the consulting team and before it is reviewed by the Boards or commissions. The City's boards and commissions can amend the CEQA findings at hearings if they desire.

3. Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act

- What is the role of the staff and commission in providing input to Section 106 documents prepared for or by; the local government? As a local government, City staff, boards, and commissions rarely play a role in Section 106 compliance requirements. When federal funding or clearance is required, City staff plays a supporting role in providing input for federal agency compliance.
- What is the role of the staff and commission in reviewing Section 106 documents for projects that are proposed within the jurisdiction of the local government? In the rare instances in which City of Chico commentary is required, projects requiring Section 106 review are forwarded to appropriate staff in the Community Development or Public Works departments to provide that input.

II. Establish an Adequate and Qualified Historic Preservation Review Commission by State or Local Legislation.
