Chico has been my home and my passion for forty years. I have served in leadership roles as diverse as Trustee of the Chico School Board to President of Altacal Audubon Society to President of Chico Realtors Association. Finding common ground and reconciling opposing viewpoints has always come naturally to me.

The qualities that I'll bring to the Chico City Council include: 1. Respect – for all, from the powerful to the least among us. 2. Civility – the tone with which we interact with others. 3. Openness – I'll approach resolution of challenges with an open mind to solutions from all stakeholders. 4. Inclusiveness – not merely allowing input but encouraging it, hearing it, and engaging in dialog. 5. Transparency – every opportunity must be taken to keep discussion of public issues in the public eye. 6. Empathy – the most important quality, the practice of considering issues and solutions through the eyes of those who are most impacted by them.

I've patrolled with our Police and Downtown Ambassadors, slept among the homeless, moderated a discussion of housing affordability and met with City Managers in other states, all to better understand Chico's challenges and make informed decisions. I'll work hard to honor your vote.
