Chico has given so much to me -- my faith, my education and love for my neighbors. I'm grateful for the mentors that have molded me into the person I am today.

As a 5th generation Chico native, I recognize how exceptional our community is and how the preservation of our quality of life is fundamental to keeping it special. As a conservationist, I believe we must protect our green spaces and waterways. And as a parent, keeping Chico families safe is my number one priority.

With an increase in crime and homelessness, it is crucial we start implementing real solutions. The counterproductive Needle Distribution Program should be replaced with proven mental health and drug rehabilitation programs. We must also recognize, while some police departments around the country lack in needed police reforms, Chico Police Department is ahead of the curve. Increasing Chico Police Department personnel is essential, not cutting as some have suggested.

I am thankful to have this city where my husband and I can raise our family. Serving as your councilmember is an opportunity to continue to give back to this community I love so much.

I would be honored to have your vote.

God Bless!!!
